Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23
Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11
Luke 12:13-21

“Why bother?” The book of Ecclesiastes hold up a world view in which, “Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!” It would indeed be a depressing world if all there was to live for was “more of the same.” But that is simply not the case. Because Christ has been raised from the dead, and “Since you have been raised up in company with Christ...” there is a new life to look forward to. As a direct result of the possibility of eternal life opened up to us in Christ, our lives today, at this moment are more important than ever. The stewardship which we exercise has direct implications in eternity. We have been instructed to “build up the Kingdom of God.” Our physical lives and our material possessions must be used to further our heavenly aspirations. We must “grow rich in the sight of God” through our use of this worlds riches in God’s service.

If you or your family would like to volunteer to bring up the gifts on Sunday just mention it to an usher before Mass.

Worship 101

"What is the Transfiguration?"

All three Synoptic Gospels tell the story of the Transfiguration (Matthew 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-9; Luke 9:28-36). With remarkable agreement, all three place the event shortly after Peter's confession of faith that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' first prediction of his passion and death. Peter's eagerness to erect tents or booths on the spot suggests it occurred during the Jewish weeklong, fall Feast of Booths. In spite of the texts' agreement, it is difficult to reconstruct the disciples' experience, according to Scripture scholars, because the Gospels draw heavily on Old Testament descriptions of the Sinai encounter with God and prophetic visions of the Son of Man. Certainly Peter, James and John had a glimpse of Jesus' divinity strong enough to strike fear into their hearts. Such an experience defies description, so they drew on familiar religious language to describe it. And certainly Jesus warned them that his glory and his suffering were to be inextricably connected—a theme John highlights throughout his Gospel. Tradition names Mt. Tabor as the site of the revelation. A church first raised there in the fourth century was dedicated on Aug. 6. A feast in honor of the Transfiguration was celebrated in the Eastern Church from about that time. Western observance began in some localities about the eighth century. On July 22, 1456, Crusaders defeated the Turks at Belgrade. News of the victory reached Rome on Aug. 6, and Pope Callistus III placed the feast on the Roman calendar the following year. "At his Transfiguration Christ showed his disciples the splendor of his beauty, to which he will shape and color those who are his: "He will reform our lowliness conformed to the body of his glory" (Philippians 3:21) (St. Thomas Aquinas, Summa Theologiae).

FROM OUR SCHOOL OFFICE

St. Mary School office opens Aug. 5th!

From the desk of Fr. Kennedy

Dear St. Mary Parishioners, I know some of you have inquired about my loss of weight (30 lbs.) and tugging up my pants. I have been diagnosed with Primary Liver Cancer and will be in treatment with an oncologist. I do not have any serious pain and as of now the cancer seems to be contained. I ask for your prayers as I will continue serving here at St. Mary's as in residence, retired. I have a positive attitude and I'm happy to be here.

Mission Appeal 2013

From the foothills of Appalachia, to the Navajo reservation in New Mexico and the Crow and Northern Cheyenne reservations of Montana, to Papua New Guinea for over 50 years . . . to the inner city and rural communities across the United States the Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg, have been walking with the struggles of prejudice, poverty, homelessness, domestic violence, addiction, poor health, unemployment, and lack of access to good education to name just a few. We have been beacons of hope to many who have given-up, who have been beaten down. In many ways, we have been bridges among communities and peoples - opening doors to witness the love and compassion of Christ. We have been that persistent neighbor who keeps knocking at the door. In every mission area when God has led the Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg - empowering women, mentoring minority youth, teaching in inner-city schools, working with immigrant families, honoring diversity and even mentoring the formation of several religious communities - in-particular the Franciscan Sisters of Mary in Papua New Guinea - prayer has been at the center of our efforts – believing that with God, nothing is impossible.

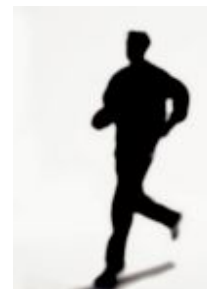

For 162 years the Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg, have been knocking at doors inviting others to minister with us as sisters, associates, prayer partners, supporters and friends. Sister Robbie was here last week to invite you, parishioners and visitors of St. Mary Parish (Hyde Park) to consider joining with the Sisters of St. Francis in our ministry . . . through prayer, presence and the sharing of your treasure. Envelopes for contributions will be available at all of the masses.

Thank you so much for opening the doors to your heart!"
