Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks
for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Penitential Rite

Option A

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Option B

Have mercy on us, O Lord.
For we have sinned against you.

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
And grant us your salvation.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Am 8: 4-7

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land! "When will the new moon be over," you ask, "that we may sell our grain, and the sabbath, that we may display the wheat? We will diminish the ephah, add to the shekel, and fix our scales for cheating! We will buy the lowly for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals; even the refuse of the wheat we will sell!"

The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Never will I forget a thing they have done!

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, who lifts up the poor.

Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD!
May the name of the LORD be blest both now and forevermore! R.

High above all nations is the LORD, above the heavens his glory.
Who is like the LORD, our God, who dwells on high,

who lowers himself to look down upon heaven and earth? R.

From the dust he lifts up the lowly, from the ash heap he raises the poor,
to set them in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people. R.

Second Reading

1 Tm 2: 1-8

Beloved: First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth. For there is one God. There is also one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as ransom for all.

This was the testimony at the proper time. For this I was appointed preacher and apostle — I am speaking the truth, I am not lying — teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Lk 16: 1-13

Jesus said to his disciples, "A rich man had a steward who was reported to him for squandering his property.

He summoned him and said, 'What is this I hear about you? Prepare a full account of your stewardship, because you can no longer be my steward.'

The steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking the position of steward away from me?

I am not strong enough to dig and I am ashamed to beg. I know what I shall do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may welcome me into their homes.'

He called in his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, 'How much do you owe my master?' He replied, 'One hundred measures of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Here is your promissory note. Sit down and quickly write one for fifty.' Then to another the steward said, 'And you, how much do you owe?' He replied, 'One hundred kors of wheat.' The steward said to him, 'Here is your promissory note; write one for eighty.' And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. I tell you, make friends for yourselves with dishonest wealth, so that when it fails, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

1. God sends us forth to love and serve,
Make known God's name and live
God's word,
Mirror God's love, reflect God's grace
Till all have seen the Savior's face.
2. Nourished by Christ, our Word and Bread,
Burning with love and Spirit-led,
Sent to embrace a world in need,
To make God known in word and deed.
3. Called to the ones the world ignores-- Hungry and thirsty, weak and poor-- Let us bear Christ, who heals all pain and comforts those bowed down by shame.
4. So, with the cross to lead the way,
Let us go forth in peace today,
And to the ends of earth make known
The saving love our God has shown.

Prost! Next weekend is Oktoberfest 2022!

September 18, 2022

Years ago we thought it would be a fun event for the parish and the surrounding neighborhood to have an Oktoberfest in Oakley and it's one of our favorite events every year! We thought Oktoberfest in this area had the potential to be an excellent draw for the community.

This year, like last, Oktoberfest will be on Saturday evening. We will have a 3:30 PM German Mass and then we will open the grounds at 4:30 PM for the annual Oktoberfest with German food and beer, games and plenty of German and dance music!

We are indeed excited about hosting this event again and need, as always, the support of the parish to make it a success. Please come and bring your family and friends. If you are interested in helping, please contact Fr. Anthony at amarcelli@eastside.org.

Thank you ... to our FunFest chairs from St. Mary Parish, Dawn and John Paquette, for a wonderful event this year! I was so amazed to see so many students and so much silly string. I am very appreciative that no one sprayed me with that stuff, on the other hand I did enjoy seeing Fr. Anthony in jail. A big thank you to all of the committee chairs, volunteers and families that helped support making the FunFest a success. It was nice to meet so many new families, students, teachers and community members who came to enjoy the wonderful weekend at the St. Mary FunFest!

Mission visit ... Fr. K.D. Joseph from the Diocese of Kurnool in southern India will be at St. Cecilia this weekend. The main challenges of his mission include giving free education to over 3,000 poor children, supporting many young men and women who are discerning their call to be the future priests and nuns, medical support of the less privileged, and evangelization in a country where Christianity is a minority. Over 100 priests and over 300 sisters serve the poor in his diocese. Please be as generous as you can to help support his mission.

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jessie

On Sunday, September 25, at 10:45 a.m., the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains will host their 18th annual Blue Mass to pray for and honor safety personnel. The celebration begins on the Plum Street Plaza at 10:45 a.m. with the singing of the National Anthem. Reverend Steve Angi, Police Chaplain, will bless the safety equipment and apparatus, then preside at the Mass. All are encouraged to attend and acknowledge, in a special way, the men and women who keep us safe!

You are invited to the Marzheuser Lecture featuring Dr. Gary Anderson on Wednesday, September 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Bartlett Center. Dr. Anderson is the Hesburgh Professor of Catholic Thought at the University of Notre Dame.

Catholic theology makes a significant distinction between enduring a punishment for one's sins and making satisfaction. Dr. Anderson's lecture, "The Penance of King David" will illustrate how this distinction can illuminate the story of David's penance after his dalliance with Bathsheba and how it might inform our own understanding of the Rite of Reconciliation.

Dr. Anderson holds a doctoral degree from Harvard University. His research focuses on the Hebrew scriptures and how they were received in Jewish and Christian communities. He has authored numerous publications, including Sin: A History (2009), Charity: The Place of the Poor in the Biblical Tradition (2013) and Christian Doctrine and the Old Testament (2017).

The second annual St. Gerard Morning of Reflection is a morning of prayer, reflection, and community for married couples experiencing a season of infertility. The event will include Holy Mass with the opportunity to venerate a first-class relic of St. Gerard, the patron saint of mothers, followed by presentations, and fellowship. This is free event will be October 15 from 8:15 AM-noon at St. Susanna Church in Mason. Please RSVP (centerforthenewevangelization.org) no later than October 10.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

There are two themes in today's gospel. The first is you can't serve God and money. Second, we must be wily in dealing with people of the world. Remember the old TV series Dallas? The character JR Ewing was a cad and unprincipled, yet people love to watch him maneuver in life. God wants us not to be not immoral as JR Ewing, but he does want us to have street smarts.

CATECHESIS (kat'i-ke'sis) n.

Can someone earn heaven by good works?

No. No man can gain heaven merely by his own efforts. The fact that we are saved is God's grace, pure and simple, which nevertheless demands the free cooperation of the individual. [2006-2001, 2025-2027]

Although it is grace and faith through which we are saved, nevertheless, our good works ought to show the love produced by God's action in us. (YOUCAT question 341)

KNOW YOUR SAINTS: St. George (d. c. 303)

If Mary Magdalene was the victim of misunderstanding, George is the object of a vast amount of imagination. There is every reason to believe that he was a real martyr who suffered at Lydda in Palestine, probably before the time of Constantine. The Church adheres to his memory, but not to the legends surrounding his life.

That he was willing to pay the supreme price to follow Christ is what the Church believes. And it is enough.

The story of George's slaying the dragon, rescuing the king's daughter and converting Libya is a 12th-century Italian fable. George was a favorite patron saint of crusaders, as well as of Eastern soldiers in earlier times. He is a patron saint of England, Portugal, Germany, Aragon, Catalonia, Genoa and Venice.

The Annual St. Francis of Assisi Blessing of Pets
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, @ 10AM

We encourage you, friends, and guests to bring any and all pets, big or small, so that Fr. Jamie can ask God to bless them with good health and safety. If you are interested, just bring your pet(s) to the rectory side yard (closest to the library/Gilmore St.) between 9:45 and 10:00 AM. For the safety of both pets and their owners, pets should be on a leash or in an appropriate carrier.

St. Mary Moms! Join St. Cecilia Mom's Group on September 20 at 6pm in the St. Cecilia rectory side yard for a kickoff cook-out. All are welcome to attend this potluck with their families. We will provide the main course and are asking each family to bring something to share!

THE WORD IN YOUR HEART | 11

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 16:10. The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones.

Jesus taught through sometimes perplexing parables. Today's gospel involves a convoluted story involving a master and his corrupt, albeit savvy, steward which ends with, "You cannot serve both God and mammon [wealth]." A fairly heavy moral lesson which has been parsed as, "You cannot serve two masters; you have to choose between God and money."

But I like to think this story of the shrewd servant is more about stewardship and honesty. We are all stewards of God's gifts, including our own talents and treasure—and, more broadly, even our planet's resources. We are entrusted as stewards for the benefit of ourselves and others, into the future, as Jesus implores us never to squander these gifts during our brief time on earth.

Two lines come to me when contemplating today's gospel. The first is from The Profit (a parody of Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet):
 "I have seen the future and it is just like the present, only longer."

The second, and far more profound, is from Archbishop Schnurr's vocation prayer that we recite in Mass:
 "You have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous 'Yes.'"

Let us strive to be trustworthy in all matters, and responsible stewards of the gifts we have been given. ~Douglas Frueh

Originally from Lima, Ohio (read: "Lost In Middle America"), Doug Frueh has been a St. Mary parishioner for over 30 years. His two daughters and two sons graduated from St. Mary School.
