STEWARDSHIP OF FINANCE

“Consider this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

Each must do as already determined, without sadness or compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.”

Penitential Rite

Option A

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Option B

Have mercy on us, O Lord.
For we have sinned against you.

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
And grant us your salvation.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Gather Your People

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks
for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

2 Kgs 5:14-17

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy.

Naaman returned with his whole retinue to the man of God. On his arrival he stood before Elisha and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, except in Israel. Please accept a gift from your servant."

Elisha replied, "As the LORD lives whom I serve, I will not take it;" and despite Naaman's urging, he still refused. Naaman said: "If you will not accept, please let me, your servant, have two mule-loads of earth, for I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the LORD."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done wondrous deeds;
his right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm. R.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.

He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel. R.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise. R.

Second Reading

2 Tm 2:8-13

Beloved: Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore, I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory.

This saying is trustworthy: If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him.

But if we deny him he will deny us. If we are unfaithful he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Lk 17:11-19

As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!"

And when he saw them, he said, "Go show yourselves to the priests." As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him.

He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, "Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

1. Father, we thank you, who have planted
Your holy name within our hearts.
Knowledge and faith and life immortal
Jesus your Son to us imparts.
Lord, you have made all for your pleasure,
And giv'n us food for all our days,
Giving in Christ the bread eternal;
Yours is the pow'r, yours be the praise.

2. Watch o'er your Church, O Lord, in mercy, Save it from evil, guard it still,
Perfect it in your love, unite it,
Cleansed and conformed unto your will.
As grain, once scatter'd on the hillsides,
Was in this broken bread made one,
So from all lands your Church be gathered Into your kingdom by your Son.

Stewardship of Finance

October 9, 2022

A basic tenet of our faith is that all we have is a gift from God. How do we give gratitude for all the gifts He has bestowed upon us? As we enter our third week in Stewardship Month, we continue looking at the gifts we can give back through our time, talent, and money. We do this to further the Kingdom of God. Some of the ways we can do this is by putting money aside for giving. Planned giving makes it easier to ensure we are ready for each week or special feast day with our monetary giving. The envelopes and online giving are two ways to help plan. Take time to decide what you can generously give each week and then be prepared. Next week we will ask you to commit. Commit to your relationship with the Lord as he has always committed Himself to you.

Saints! One of my favorite events each year is our All Saints Parade. Please join us at the 10:00 Mass at St. Cecilia and the 10:30 Mass at St. Mary on Sunday, October 30, as we watch our little saints march into church in the procession. Please come early so that the children can get lined up and be part of the parade. Make sure they know where you are seated so that they can return to their seat afterward. We want all the children to feel welcome to dress up, so moms and dad don't hesitate to dress up those babies and you can carry them in during the parade!

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jesse

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God's voice amidst the noise and busyness of our lives can be difficult. But He is always there to guide and help us, and He has given us other people and resources to help us, as well. If you think God may be calling you to religious life and you need someone to talk to, call Fr. Dan Schmitmeyer at 421.3131, ext. 2890.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

Winston Churchill tells the story of a young boy who accidentally fell off a ship into the British Channel. A dutiful sailor saw it and dove into the Channel. Swimming against the current, he got the boy and saved him. Later in the day, the boy's grandmother came with the boy to the sailor and said, "Are you the man who saved my grandson?" The sailor said "Yes." To which the grandmother said, "He had a hat." So much for being thankful. Ten lepers were cured in today's gospel. Only one came back to thank Jesus.

How often do we thank Him for what He has given us?

Fr. Ken Schopf

St Vincent de Paul September Second Collection Success Story

Thank you, St. Mary, for the $3,500 from the September second collection. We have used your gifts to support two women finishing their degrees and on the path to better futures.

One of the recipients of SVDP assistance needed help with her final tuition payment from nursing school, which she has been pursuing while raising five children. The second recipient of support is on her way to a degree in psychology. This new mother had her car repossessed because she missed payments due to a lack of income related to the birth of her healthy but 3-week preterm baby.

Thank you for helping us help them.

CATECHESIS (kat'i-ke'sis) n.

What place does the family have in God's plan of creation?

A man and a woman who are married to each other form, together with their children, a family. God wills that the love of the spouses, if possible, should produce children. These children, who are entrusted to the protection and care of their parents, have the same dignity as their parents. [2201-2206, 2249]

God himself, in the depths of the Trinity, is communion. In the human sphere, the family is the primordial image of communion. The family is the unique school of living in relationships. Nowhere do children grow up as well as in an intact family, in which they experience heartfelt affection, mutual respect, and responsibility for one another. Finally, faith grows in the family, too; the family is, the Church tells us, a miniature church, a “domestic church”, the radiance of which should invite others into this fellowship of faith, charity, and hope. (YOUCAT question 368)

KNOW YOUR SAINTS: St. Thomas the Apostle

Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been branded as “Doubting Thomas” ever since. But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: “My Lord and My God!” (see John 20:24-28) and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time. He also occasioned a compliment from Jesus to all later Christians: “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29).

Thomas should be equally well known for his courage. Perhaps what he said was impetuous—since he ran, like the rest, at the showdown—but he can scarcely have been insincere when he expressed his willingness to die with Jesus. The occasion was when Jesus proposed to go to Bethany after Lazarus had died. Since Bethany was near Jerusalem, this meant walking into the very midst of his enemies and to almost certain death. Realizing this, Thomas said to the other apostles, “Let us also go to die with him” (John 11:16b).

Save the date for the All Saints Parade!

In honor of all the saints, known and unknown, we will host the annual ALL SAINTS PARADE on Sunday, October 30 at the opening procession of the 10 AM Mass at St. Cecilia and the 10:30 AM Mass at St. Mary. During this special procession, our priests will lead our “saintly” costumed children in a procession into the church at the beginning of Mass. All children who wish to participate should meet in the back of the church already dressed no later than 15 minutes before Mass. Please join us in the celebration!

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

2 Timothy 2:12. “But if we deny him, he will deny us.”

Today’s second reading provides us with a trustworthy message that is hopeful but also a stern warning: “If we have died with him, we shall also live with him... But if we deny him, he will deny us.” We do not deny Christ only by rejecting his divinity, his Church, or by failing to adhere to God’s commandments. We also deny Christ if we deny his work in our lives and fail to glorify God in our joys and sufferings alike.

We must strive to remain faithful and give thanks to God in all things, like the one leper who returned to glorify God and thank Jesus for being healed, so that, when we pass on from this life, we may be greeted in the next with the words, “Stand up and go; your faith has saved you” (Luke 17:19). ~Jonathan Pechette

Jonathan Pechette lives in Bridgetown with his wonderful wife Linden and their beautiful newborn daughter.
