Worship Aid for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask
blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore
you, we glorify you, we give you thanks
for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away
the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets. Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD." Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56

Glo - ry and praise for ev - er - more.

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever;
and blessed is your holy and glorious name,
praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages. R.

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory,
praiseworthy and glorious above all forever. R.

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever. R.

Blessed are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim,
praiseworthy and exalted above all forever. R.

Second Reading

2 Cor 13:11-13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Jn 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father
and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Feast of the Holy Trinity

June 4, 2023

On the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity or Trinity Sunday. This is the day of the revelation of one God, three divine persons, and it is celebrated as a solemn Mass. In the Catechism we learn that, The Trinity is “the central of Christian faith and life...and is the source of all the other mysteries of faith” (CCC 234).

We can also reflect on the words of Pope Benedict XVI, who best described this feast day, “He revealed to us that God is love not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance.” He is the Creator and merciful Father; he is the Only-Begotten Son, eternal Wisdom incarnate, who died and rose for us; he is the Holy Spirit who moves all things, cosmos and history, toward their final, full recapitulation. Three Persons who are one God because the Father is love, the Son is love, the Spirit is love. God is wholly and only love, the purest, infinite and eternal love.

Glory be to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jesse

Next Sunday we will have our Corpus Christi Procession after 10:00 a.m. Mass at St. Cecilia, the 9:30 a.m. Mass at the Oratory and the 10:30 Mass at St. Mary. It is an opportunity for us to go out into the streets and neighborhoods and give public witness to our faith and to uphold our devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. For those who can not be part of the procession there will be music played in the churches while it is going on until Benediction. Please plan for the weather and you are welcome to bring strollers along.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS
Part 6: Active Participation

“Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy.” (SC14)

This famous quote is from the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and has been the driving force behind much of the reform that has occurred since the end of Vatican II. Despite being arguably the most famous quote from this document, it is also one of the most misunderstood. Many people think that active participation means only general activity such as standing, kneeling, sitting, singing, praying out loud and taking an active role such as being a Lector or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. These are external modes of participation. One of my favorite quotes is by Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger from his book The Spirit of the Liturgy, “if the liturgy degenerates into general activity, then we have radically misunderstood the “theo-drama” of the liturgy and lapsed almost into parody.” We need to also consider our internal participation.

Fully, conscious and active participation means that we understand the Liturgy and completely take part in it with our entire being, our hearts and souls, in both the Holy Sacrifice and the Eucharistic banquet. We embrace Jesus Christ and join our sacrifices to His on the cross for the glorification of our Father. We attend Mass not for what we get but for what we can give, glorification. This happens not only through general activity, which is a part of it, but also through silent prayer and reflection. Active participation occurs when we “lift our hearts up to the Lord.”

Many times at Mass we can get distracted by the people around us or personal issues with which we are struggling. Jesus is divine but also human. He is aware of our distractions and will help us focus on the liturgy if you ask for his assistance. Keep returning to him and your active participation will grow.

THE WORD IN YOUR HEART | 11

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Exodus 34:9. "This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and claim us as your own."

It has been around 3,000 years since Moses spoke the above words to God, and we remain a stiff-necked people. We reject the inerrant Word of God and the teachings of the Magisterium. We harden our hearts and deafen our ears as he calls us to holiness. We take for granted the immense graces he pours forth through the sacraments of his Holy Church.

God seeks each of us and desires for us to be in communion with him, to experience true joy and freedom. We must also seek him because, at the end of our days on earth, we will get what we chose in this life: either God's presence or his absence.

~Jonathan and Linden Pechette

Jonathan and Linden Pechette, former St. Mary parishioners, now live in Bridgetown with their beautiful daughter. This will be their final reflection for The Word In Your Heart. We thank them for all their contributions to this column and our parish. We miss them, but wish them all happiness in their new home.
