THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

Madonna of the Rosary, 1607, Caravaggio

Worship Aid for the Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, And striking their breast, they say: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Is 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend, my friend's song concerning his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside; he spaded it, cleared it of stones, and planted the choicest vines; within it he built a watchtower, and hewed out a wine press. Then he looked for the crop of grapes, but what it yielded was wild grapes.

Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard: What more was there to do for my vineyard that I had not done? Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes? Now, I will let you know what I mean to do with my vineyard: take away its hedge, give it to grazing, break through its wall, let it be trampled! Yes, I will make it a ruin: it shall not be pruned or hoed, but overgrown with thorns and briars; I will command the clouds not to send rain upon it. The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant; he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

The vine-yard of the Lord is the house of Is - ra - el.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out the nations and planted it.

It stretched out its branches to the sea;
to the River it stretched out its shoots. R.

Then why have you broken down its walls?

It is plucked by all who pass by the way.

It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. R.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore;
look down from heaven and see.

Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted, the son of man you have claimed for yourself. R.

And we shall never forsake you again;
give us life that we may call upon your name.

O LORD God of hosts, bring us back; let your face shine forth, and we shall be saved. R.

Second Reading

Phil 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mt 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Offertory Hymn

You Are All We Have

Refrain

Verses

1. Protect me, Lord; I come to you for safety.
I say, "You are my God."
All good things, Lord, all good things how good they are!

I praise the Lord who guides me and teaches me the way of truth and life.
3. You are near, the God I seek.
Nothing can take me from your side.
All my days I rest secure;
you will show me the path that leads to life.

Choral Meditation - 10:30

Give Us, O Lord

Refrain

*Give us, O Lord, the bread of your word, give us the bread of your table.
 Be in our prayer, be in our labor as we seek to do your will.*

- Gather us to yourself, O Lord, gather us each to each.
 Make us one body bound by love in this holy feast.
- Speak to our hearts, O Risen Lord, words that will burn within, giving us courage for the call: "Come and follow me."
- Now in this holy bread, your flesh life given for the world.
 Now in this blessing cup, your blood: love of God outpoured.
- Teach us the myst'ries of your reign, where truth and mercy meet, where all who hunger have their fill, nations dwell in peace.
- Praise to the Father and the Son, Spirit of God be praised,
 Love overflowing to redeem, Triune Font of Grace.

Recessional Hymn

Father, We Thank Thee Who Have Planted

1. Father, we thank you, who have planted
 Your holy name within our hearts.
 Knowledge and faith and life immortal
 Jesus your Son to us imparts.
 Lord, you have made all for your pleasure,
 And giv'n us food for all our days,
 Giving in Christ the bread eternal;
 Yours is the pow'r, yours be the praise.

2. Watch o'er your Church, O Lord, in mercy,
 Save it from evil, guard it still,
 Perfect it in your love, unite it,
 Cleansed and conformed unto your will.
 As grain, once scatter'd on the hillsides,
 Was in this broken bread made one,
 So from all lands your Church be gathered Into your kingdom by your Son.

The Month of the Holy Rosary

October 8, 2023

On Saturday, October 7, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Rosary and the entire month is also dedicated to the Rosary. Since the Rosary is a scriptural prayer it is a meditation on the Gospel and the words of Our Lord. As we recite the prayers we can focus on the Incarnation and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. If you are looking for a way to spend time with God, set aside a time to pray the Rosary every day. The Blessed Mother helps us get closer to her Son by giving us these beads to pray and hold Him in our thoughts. The Rosary has been known to be a weapon to fight evil. Throughout history we have gone through some horrible times and so many times we have heard stories about how the Rosary has saved people's lives and changed the course of their paths.

Praying the Rosary and making it a habit takes time. Try putting a time on your phone so that you get a reminder each day to pray. Start with a decade if that's all you can do until you find that the habit naturally comes to you. I also want to encourage families to start praying the Rosary with your children. Our school children will be praying it each day during the month of October so this would be the perfect time to make it a family tradition. Let us ask the Virgin Mary to lead us closer to Jesus and that we hear the words the Lord gave us as we pray the beautiful prayer of the Holy Rosary.

I am proud to announce that St. Mary School was once again recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School! SMS is now a four-time National Blue Ribbon School awardee, 1986, 1994, 2006, & 2023. Congratulations to our administration, teachers, staff, students, parents, and the entire school community. St. Mary School ... where Catholic faith and education excellence develop extraordinary students.

Amen? Amen.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

As Christians, we are supposed to bear fruit. But sometimes, we focus on trivial things or material endeavors that take our eyes off the mark. We must ensure our fruit is adequately tended to flourish and not turn sour.

Fr. Ken Schopf

From the School Office

Our Mother Mary is our focus during the month of October. To honor the Blessed Virgin Mary and show her gratitude for the protection she gives us, a decade of the Rosary is recited during the afternoon announcements. Eighth grade students rotate daily leading us in prayer over the PA.

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S
CORNER

Let Us Dream: The Path to a Better Future
by Pope Francis

Many of you probably receive several e-mails daily (or hourly!) tempting you with all sorts of things you must have. Every few days, one of the e-mails I receive is a review of recent books. The one-line sell of this book really caught my eye — “the preeminent spiritual leader explains why we must — and how we can — make the world safer, fairer, and healthier for all people now.” Although this book was written in the midst of the COVID crisis, Pope Francis explores what COVID can teach us about how to handle upheaval of any kind whether it be in our own lives or in the world at large. He cites the example of three crises in his life, and the way those changed him for the better. The open candor and honest writing style of Pope Francis makes this book very easy-to-read. So much of what he experienced is similar to what many of us go through in our lives. Pope Francis also offers some wise and surprising observations on unconventional thinking — inspiring words which gave me much to ponder. Pope Francis concludes by reminding us that a Christian’s first duty is to serve others, especially the poor and the marginalized, just as Jesus did. Not only did this book cause me to dream, to take time to meditate and contemplate what the future may be like. More importantly, it caused me to think about and plan what I can do, in my own small way, to make a better future. (Reviewed by Ron Lamping)

Cocktails with the Catechism presents

Courage at the End of Life: A Conversation with Dr. Natalie King

Tuesday, October 24th
7-9 pm
Big Ash Brewing

The Eastside Family Young Adult Ministry invites you to join us for our October rendition of Cocktails with the Catechism, featuring special guest, Dr. Natalie King. During this month of October as we reflect on the importance of the protection of life, especially during its most vulnerable seasons, we are privileged to have Dr. King speak to us about her thorough professional experience with this topic as it relates to physician-assisted suicide and euthanasia. Dr. King is a palliative medicine physician whose career has brought her to states like Colorado where this practice is legal. As a member of the Catholic Medical Association, the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine, and with a Master's degree in Bioethics from Ohio State University, her specialty is in end of life issues. Come listen as Dr. King ruminates on how suffering is viewed and experienced in today's world, how pro-life and pro-dignity palliative care can be successfully practiced, and the mercy and charity that are at the center of the Catholic approach.
