The Month of the Holy Souls in Purgatory November 12, 2023

This month we dedicate it to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. We remember all of the faithfully departed that are now in Purgatory, and are waiting to attain the joys of heaven. Although we may have experienced the death of a loved one this year and are missing them dearly, they need us now more than ever. This is a time when they need your prayers to help them attain heaven. During the month of November take some time to offer up your Holy Communion for the souls in purgatory. Visit the Blessed Sacrament and pray to Our Lord on behalf of those souls. You can also visit our offices and have Masses said for your departed loved ones. Many times people come to Mass on the anniversary of the death of that person and light a candle. I encourage you to take time this month and to do some of these things and to keep those you have lost and loved close to your heart as you pray for their souls to attain the great gift of heaven.

PRAYER OF ST. GERTRUDE THE GREAT

Fr. Jessie

*Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today,
for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere,
for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family.
Amen.*

This year we will observe and celebrate the feast day of St. Cecilia, Virgin-Martyr and Patroness of Music, on the weekend of November 18-19. She, along with all the glorious virgin-martyrs, battled to maintain their integrity and faith; in return, they were divinely protected and rewarded. Those virgin-martyrs sacrificed what was naturally good for the sake of God, the Supreme Good. Their lives should inspire all of the faithful, and particularly their namesakes, to pay due homage to Our God.

Let us pray. O God, from whose bounty all good gifts proceed, and who in Your virgin-martyr Cecilia did both give the flower of virginity and the palm of martyrdom, at her intercession unite our souls to You by love so that we may avoid all peril and gain the rewards of eternity. Through Christ, our Lord

Included in our honoring and celebration of St. Cecilia, there will be prayer cards available after each of the Masses at all the exits.

SAVE THE DATE! You are invited to join the St. Cecilia homeschool community in attending their first Christmas pageant. The homeschool children will be putting on the play "Ad Jesum Per Mariam" (To Jesus Through Mary) on Saturday, December 16 at 10 am, in the St. Cecilia school gym. Please join us afterwards for light refreshments and fellowship.

From the Oratory of Saint John Vianney

The Oratory is part of St. Cecilia Parish and dedicated to expanding the Catholic presence in Madisonville, and devoted to prayer for the priests of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, through the intercession of St. John Vianney, patron of parish priests. Please join us this week in praying for: Fr. Rick Walling, Fr. Edward Hoffman, Fr. Jeff Silver (Hamilton Pastoral Region), Fr. James Meade, and Fr. Terence Meehann. (retired). Special thanks to those who have offered to help send notes of thanks and encouragement to the priests we are praying for each week! If you would like to help, please contact Dale Hutchinson at hutchdale52@gmail.com.

Celebrating National Black Catholic History Month: What I love About Being Catholic

I love that the Church is universal — that no matter where in the world, the Mass is still the same. I've attended Mass in several non-English speaking countries and was able to follow along even though the Mass was celebrated in a different language.

Attending Mass helps us strengthen our faith and our connection to God. It's also a great way to start the week. - Ros and Ruth Boles

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

The Boy Scouts' motto is Be Prepared. That is a good motto for all of us. In today's gospel, we have the story of the ten bridesmaids. Five were wise. Five were foolish. Let us reflect on how we live our lives. Which category would we fall under?

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

The Good, the Messy, and the Beautiful

by Dr. Edward Sri and Beth Sri

The Good, the Messy, and the Beautiful has been a wonderful book to use as a guide with our Commission of St. Louis and Zelig couples. Even as seasoned veterans and one of the mentor couples in this group, the book has still been very eye opening for my husband and I, and the discussions we've had with our young couples have been so fruitful. Each chapter has a handful of questions for those either preparing for the sacrament of marriage or those who have already entered into their covenant. This, combined with the bite-sized nuggets of wisdom, make it the perfect book to work through for any couple looking to grow in holiness. Marriage is always a work in progress. The Sris' book is so honest and any couple can find themselves in the stories and situations they use to illustrate how hard and messy marriage can sometimes be. It also helps you realize that the hard work you put into it will one day let you enjoy the fruits of your labor. One of my favorite chapters was, "Beautiful Limitations: You Build a Life, and Then It Builds You." It talks about the beauty and gift of giving one's human freedom to serve something more than oneself. Although there are so many sacrifices you must make, each day you can wake up with a grateful heart that God has given you this vocation. There is true beauty in the love that flourishes from it in marriage. (Reviewed by Marta Misleh)

To Live and Live Abundantly : Freedom Found in the Theology of the Body

Tuesday, November 28th
7-9 pm
Big Ash Brewing

The Eastside Family Young Adult Ministry invites you to join us for our November rendition of Cocktails with the Catechism, featuring special guest, Fr. Tim Fahey. What does it mean to live a life of “freedom”? In the Catholic tradition, we believe that freedom speaks to our ability to achieve ultimate human flourishing and pursue our God-given end of sainthood. Consequently, freedom comes to be understood as a fruit of exercising virtue in its many forms. Among these, one of the most difficult to understand and put into practice can be the virtue of chastity. Despite common misconception, this is a virtue that all people (single, engaged, religious, or married) are called to practice throughout the course of our lives. Join Fr. Fahey for a conversation on the Catholic moral life, with a special emphasis on recognizing the dignity of our embodied sexuality and untangling many of the webs that trap our culture today.

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Wis 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom, and she is readily perceived by those who love her, and found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire; Whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed, for he shall find her sitting by his gate. For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence, and whoever for her sake keeps vigil shall quickly be free from care; because she makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

My soul is thirst-ing for you, O Lord, thirst - ing for you my God.

O God, you are my God; at dawn I seek you;
for you my soul is thirsting.
For you my flesh is pining,
like a dry, weary land without water. R.

I will bless you all my life;
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet;
with joyful lips, my mouth shall praise you. R.

I have come before you in the sanctuary,
to behold your strength and your glory.
Your loving mercy is better than life;
my lips will speak your praise. R.

When I remember you upon my bed,
I muse on you through the watches of the night.
For you have been my strength;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. R.

Second Reading

1 Thes 4:13-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself, with a word of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mt 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps. Since the bridegroom was long delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight, there was a cry, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise ones replied, 'No, for there may not be enough for us and you. Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.' While they went off to buy it, the bridegroom came and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him. Then the door was locked. Afterwards the other virgins came and said, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!' But he said in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.' Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Communion Hymn

I Am the Bread of Life

1. I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.
2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread, you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.
3. Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.
4. I am the Resurrection, I am the life. If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live for ever.
5. Yes, Lord, we believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, Who has come into the world.

Refrain

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a steady rhythm. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and moving lines that support the vocal melody. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

Recessional Hymn

Church of God, Elect and Glorious

1. Church of God, elect and glorious,
holy nation, chosen race;
called as God's own special people,
royal priests and heirs of grace:
know the purpose of your calling,
show to all God's mighty deeds;
tell of love which knows no limits,
grace which meets all human needs.

2. God has called you out of darkness into his most marv'ulous light, brought his truth to life within you,
turned your blindness into sight.
Let your light so shine around you that God's name is glorified:
and all find fresh hope and purpose in Christ Jesus crucified.

3. Once you were an alien people, strangers to God's heart of love;
but he brought you home in mercy,
citizens of heav'n above.
Let his love flow out to others,
let them feel a Father's care;
that they too may know his welcome
and his countless blessings share.

Choral Meditation - 10:30

Make of Our Hands a Throne

Steven Warner

Make of our hands a throne to hold the bread of heaven, make of our hearts a home to hold the very wine of life, in this mystery, Lord, make us one with you.

1. *Taste of this goodness and feast at this banquet! How blest the faithful who find shelter in God!
Look to your Maker, be radiant with glory, for those who love the Lord are saved from their fears.*
2. *You keep your promise, O God our Savior, hope of the distant isles and all of the earth.
You crown us with goodness, your fields decked with harvest.
Your valleys clothed in wheat resound with your joy!*
3. *From clouds above us you send down your blessings, the bread of heaven and the water of life!
You rain down your bounty and kiss us with manna, bread of the angels for our food and our feast.*
4. With patient yearning, we look to you in hunger, and through the length of days you feed all your flock. Your hands, with abundance, are wide with your promise, you grant the longings of a people in need!
5. This bread now broken, once grain upon the hillside, is brought together and transformed in our midst. So may all your people be gathered together, from every land into the kingdom of love!
