LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts.
Humble yourself the more, the greater you are,
and you will find favor with God.

What is too sublime for you, seek not,
into things beyond your strength search not.

The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs,
and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise.

Water quenches a flaming fire,
and alms atone for sins.

The Word of the Lord

Psalm Response

Ps 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11

God, in your good-ness, you have made a home for the poor.

Second Reading

Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a

Brothers and sisters:

You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them.

No, you have approached Mount Zion
and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering,
and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven,
and God the judge of all,
and the spirits of the just made perfect,
and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant,
and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

Holy Gospel

Lk 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table.

"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet,
do not recline at table in the place of honor.

A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say,

'Give your place to this man,'

and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place.

Rather, when you are invited,
go and take the lowest place

so that when the host comes to you he may say,

'My friend, move up to a higher position.'

Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table.

For every one who exalts himself will be humbled,
but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Then he said to the host who invited him,

"When you hold a lunch or a dinner,
do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment.

Rather, when you hold a banquet,
invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;
blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.

For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Gospel of the Lord

Homily

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken Parochial Vicar

First, I wish to thank all our festival heads and chairs. Despite the occasional rain, it was a success!

In our Gospel today, Jesus tells us not to exalt ourselves and act pompous. He wants us to know that the wedding banquet is for all and not for an elite few.

This weekend, we say farewell to Carissa Young, our Assistant Director of Music. She and her family will be relocating to Akron, Ohio. We, as the St. Mary community, have been blessed by the musical gifts she has shared and wish her and her family many blessings on the new chapter in their lives. Thank you, Carissa!

The Pastor's Corner

Final Mass at St. Margaret-St. John

Between 1920 and 1922, St. Margaret of Cortona was built by parishioners with all of the labor and supplies being donated for free. This was the first church and school building. The current church was built in the 1950's, and the school thrived in that area.

From 1949 to 1952, the St. John Vianney church and school were built on land that had been cleared by the seminarians at that time. Both the church and school flourished.

On September 14, 2008, St. John Vianney Parish and St. Margaret of Cortona Parish officially merged into St. Margaret-St. John Parish, with Masses continuing to be celebrated in both parishes.

This Sunday, August 28, 2022 we will be celebrating our last Mass at St. Margaret-St. John. For many it is a sad day, but it is also a day to look forward to a new journey. With the work of many parishioners, we will still have a presence in Madisonville, which is very important to all of us. As we work through the next few years following the guidance of The Beacons of Light, we will continue to move forward and have daily and weekend Masses in the area.

Please keep all of our parishioners in our family in your prayers as we navigate these new changes. I am blessed to have met so many wonderful and supportive people at St. Margaret-St. John, and I know it was a wonderful experience for our young, newly ordained priests who had the blessing of living on the campus. Amen? Amen.

St Mary Elderly and Homebound Ministry

Please join us for a planning meeting:

- † THIS Tuesday, August 30
- † 7:00 pm in the Marian Room in Seton Center

Purpose:

The Elderly and Homebound Ministry provides a social connection between the parish and those in need. This ministry, through volunteer effort, contacts parish members who reside in residences, nursing facilities, and other home situations. Ministry volunteers offer a listening ear and a comforting presence to those who are ill or homebound. The goal is to offer parishioners an encounter with one another to experience God's goodness and to continue the connection to St. Mary Parish.

What is the scope of the ministry?

Through home visits, reassuring phone calls, and sending cards and bulletins regularly, the parish volunteers will engage the elderly/homebound person through conversation, social, and spiritual support. Eucharistic Ministers may deliver Holy Eucharist to those who ask. This ministry is an opportunity to make God's presence immediate and real to the homebound parishioner through prayer and the reception of Communion.

How do I ask to be paired with a Church Member?

Contact the Parish Office and request to be paired with a parishioner or to receive weekly bulletins. 513-321-1207.

Is training available for Eucharistic Ministers?

Our St. Mary Deacon will provide training for those who are interested in becoming Eucharistic Ministers for the Homebound. For more information, contact Terri Knappenberger at 321-1207 ext. 8400 or tknappenberger@smshp.com.

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach 3:17-18. My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God.

My six-year-old spent the better part of last year responding to compliments by saying either, "I know" or "Thanks! I know." My husband and I tried coaching him on the virtues of humility — yet his "I knows" stubbornly remained.

One day, during a public and high-volume "I know" extravaganza, I pulled my son away from a post-game group of buddies and parents and hissed, "When someone compliments you, why do you continue to say, 'I know?'"

My little guy gave me the side-eye, "You told me it's important to be truthful. The things they're saying about me ARE true and I am being KIND by agreeing with them. I am fast. I played a good game today. Also — ALL the adults laugh really hard at me and smile after I say, 'I know.' They think I'm funny. I'm making them happy!"

I sighed. "Buddy, remember, try to show some humility. Humility is quiet confidence. It's about feeling good about your hard work and your talents, but also knowing that others are just as good as you are — and not saying 'I know' when you're paid a compliment. Does that make sense?"

"Not really. I know my teammates are really good too — I mean, we're undefeated. It feels like you're asking me to lie and not run as fast or do my best. I don't understand."

"Ok so, you know how God is amazing and really powerful — just like you're pretty fast? Well, despite his power and ability to do great things, he can also be humble. God knows he is special, yet he allowed himself to be crucified. So, he asks us to be humble too. Do you understand?"

"Yes. I'm basically just like God and he might like me more if I walk...maybe even crawl."

Stephanie Murphy lives in Norwood with her husband Mike and 3 children: Graham (6), Brooks (4) and Margot (10 months).

The Word In Your Heart – a reflective response to the Sunday scriptures – is a faith-sharing opportunity open to all parishioners. New contributors warmly welcomed! Contact Janet Buening at 513-871-9294 or janetrehlingbuening@gmail.com.

Humility leads to happiness because it makes you teachable.
