 to people of good will.

We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks
 for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ,
 Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God,
 Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

Penitential Rite

Option A

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
 in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And striking their breast, they say:
 through my fault, through my fault,
 through my most grievous fault;
 therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
 all the Angels and Saints,
 and you, my brothers and sisters,
 to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Option B

Have mercy on us, O Lord.
For we have sinned against you.

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
And grant us your salvation.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
 Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
 Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Wis 11:22-12:2

Before the LORD the whole universe is as a grain from a balance or a drop of morning dew come down upon the earth. But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things; and you overlook people's sins that they may repent. For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for what you hated, you would not have fashioned. And how could a thing remain, unless you willed it; or be preserved, had it not been called forth by you? But you spare all things, because they are yours, O LORD and lover of souls, for your imperishable spirit is in all things! Therefore you rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing, that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O LORD!

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

1. I will extol you, my God and king, and bless your name forever and ever.
I will bless you day after day,
and praise your name forever and ever.

2. The LORD is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy.
How good is the LORD to all,
compassionate to all his creatures.

3. All your works shall thank you, O LORD, and all your faithful ones bless you.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign,
and declare your mighty deeds.

4. The LORD is faithful in all his words, and holy in all his deeds.
The LORD supports all who fall,
and raises up all who are bowed down.

Second Reading

2 Thes 1:11-2:2

Brothers and sisters: We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith, that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, in accord with the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

We ask you, brothers and sisters, with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling with him, not to be shaken out of your minds suddenly, or to be alarmed either by a "spirit," or by an oral statement, or by a letter allegedly from us to the effect that the day of the Lord is at hand.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Lk 19:1-10

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

We Remember

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal.

Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Recessional Hymn

Let All Things Now Living

1. Let all things now living
A song of thanksgiving
To God the Creator triumphantly raise,
Who fashioned and made us,
Protected and stayed us,
And guides us with care to the end of our days.
God's banners are o'er us,
God's light goes before us,
A pillar of fire shining forth in the night:
Till shadows have vanished
And darkness is banished,
As forward we travel from light into light.

2. God rules all the forces:
The stars in their courses
And sun in its orbit obediently shine;
The hills and the mountains,
The rivers and fountains,
The deeps of the ocean proclaim God divine.
We too should be voicing
Our love and rejoicing;
With glad adoration a song let us raise Till all things now living Unite in thanksgiving:
"To God in the highest, hosanna and praise!"

All Saints' and All Souls' Days November: Month of the Dead

October 30, 2022

The Feast of All Saints is on Tuesday, November 1, and the Feast of All Souls is on Wednesday, November 2, to commemorate all of those who have died within the faith. It is a day when you can light a candle in remembrance and visit the burial place of the dearly departed. We will have Masses at all three parishes in the family to celebrate the saints and martyrs and to remind us that those who have passed will be in purgatory. We can pray for those who have died as we are joined by the Communion of Saints who share in the hope of resurrection from the dead.

Amen? Amen.

Veteran's Day: Collection for the Military

Our parishes will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS), next weekend, a collection approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years. The AMS provides pastoral care to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Armed Forces, enrolled at a U.S. Military Academy, being treated as a patient including those from our own parish and diocese. The AMS does not receive any funding from the government or military, and has no parishes from which to receive a weekly assessment. To learn more about the AMS, go to www.milarch.org/nationalcollection.

Veterans Day Prayer

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

Holy Hour for Vocations

November 6 marks the beginning of National Vocations Awareness Week. We will be dedicating our Holy Hours on Tuesday and Wednesday (Nov. 8-9) of that week for prayers for vocations.

Elderly and Homebound Ministry

The mission is to visit/contact homebound and elderly parishioners who can no longer attend Mass. It is an incredible opportunity to accompany and serve those most in need.

The ministry entails home visits, phone calls, sending cards/bulletins, and more. Ministry can be completed according to your time and comfortability. A volunteer can be trained as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion to bring the Eucharistic Lord to those who can no longer attend Mass (training will be provided).

If you want to help, email or call Terri Knappenberger (tknappenberger@smsph.com) to be placed on our list and we will get you all the info and assistance you need!

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

When I was a kid, we would play hide and seek in our side yard. I would climb up an oak tree in order not to be found. In our gospel today, we have Zaccheus, who climbed up a sycamore tree not to hide but to be found. By doing so, salvation was his. Join us Wednesday, November 2, for All Souls Day Mass at 7:00 pm. We will remember those who have gone before us in faith this past year and for loved ones who died prior.

CATECHESIS (kat'i-ke'sis) n.

What does the “communion of saints” mean?

The “communion of saints” is made up of all men and women who have placed their hope in Christ and belong to him through Baptism, whether they have already died or are still alive. Because in Christ we are one Body, we live in a communion that encompasses heaven and earth. [946-962]

The Church is larger and more alive than we think. Among her members are the living and the deceased (whether they are still undergoing a process of purification or are already in the glory of God), individuals known and unknown, great saints and inconspicuous persons. We can help one another even beyond the grave. We can call on our patrons and favorite saints, but also our departed relatives and friends whom we believe are already with God. Conversely, by our intercessory prayer, we can come to the aid of our dear departed who are still undergoing purification. Whatever the individual does or suffers in and for Christ benefits all. Conversely, this unfortunately means also that every sin harms the communion. (YOUCAT question 146)

KNOW YOUR SAINTS

Ss. Joachim and Anne

In the Scriptures, Matthew and Luke furnish a legal family history of Jesus, tracing ancestry to show that Jesus is the culmination of great promises. Not only is his mother’s family neglected, we also know nothing factual about them except that they existed. Even the names Joachim and Anne come from a legendary source written more than a century after Jesus died.

The heroism and holiness of these people, however, is inferred from the whole family atmosphere around Mary in the Scriptures. Whether we rely on the legends about Mary’s childhood or make guesses from the information in the Bible, we see in her a fulfillment of many generations of prayerful persons, herself steeped in the religious traditions of her people.

The strong character of Mary in making decisions, her continuous practice of prayer, her devotion to the laws of her faith, her steadiness at moments of crisis, and her devotion to her relatives—all indicate a close-knit, loving family that looked forward to the next generation even while retaining the best of the past.

Joachim and Anne—whether these are their real names or not—represent that entire quiet series of generations who faithfully perform their duties, practice their faith and establish an atmosphere for the coming of the Messiah, but remain obscure.

St. Cecilia Thanksgiving Day Dinner

St. Cecilia Parish will host its annual Thanksgiving Dinner for anyone needing a meal or wanting company to share the holiday. The dinner will be from noon-2 p.m. on Thursday, November 24, in the Commons (school cafeteria).

The dinner is free and open to all ages. Meal deliveries are available by calling Dan at (513) 478-0361. All requests for meal delivery must be made by 5 p.m. on Monday, November 21.

There are many opportunities available to lend a hand. The need for individuals to donate and roast a turkey is great — we use about 65 turkeys each year. If you can help with that, please call Dee at (513) 871-4191. If you reach voice mail, please leave your name and number and someone will return your call.

For any of the other volunteer opportunities, please call Dan at (513) 478-0361. We need people to assist with turkey carving the evening prior, delivering meals to people's homes, serving, preparing carry-out meals, engaging in hospitality, and clean-up. Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted.

Senior Fun Bunch Soup Supper

Bring your favorite soup, crackers, bread, cheese, any sides that are good with soup on Sunday, November 6, from 4-6 p.m., to the St. Cecilia Commons. If you don't want to make a pot of soup, bring your favorite dessert! It'll be fun to get together on fall evening sharing good food and fellowship. Please join us!

Wisdom 11:23-24. You have mercy on all... and you overlook people's sins that they may repent. For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made.

In my younger years I learned scripture through two primary sources: my 6th grade teacher at Guardian Angels School and the contemporary hymns that became popular post-Vatican II.

Sister Carmen Marie spoke of Bible figures as if they were close friends, and of the apostles like former students of whom she was particularly proud. She retold the gospels in her own lively way, stressing always the humanity as well as the spirituality of the people in them — and the unwavering love Jesus had for them all, along with infinite patience.

Sister Carmine loved Zacchaeus, the little man who proved big things are possible with God —and was especially animated when telling the story of this wealthy, important person (unfortunately also a tax collector and short of physical stature), who put all dignity aside and climbed a tree to see Jesus. When this gospel is read I still hear her words in my head, accompanied by the hymn “Zacchaeus,” sung by the Medical Mission Sisters in cheerful voices with perfect diction, to an unexpected Afro Calypso beat. (From their 1966 album Joy is Like the Rain – listen to it on YouTube. Both Sister Carmen and the Medical Mission Sisters focused on how Jesus’ immense love brought about an immediate and complete change in Zacchaeus.

But when I reflect on this gospel from my adult perspective, I cynically think, “No one important would ever do such a thing.” Even picturing Danny DeVito as Zacchaeus doesn’t make the story plausible. So I must put aside the voices from younger days and look to the rest of today’s scripture for the meaning and message. In addition to Wisdom (cited above), there is this from Saint Paul (another of Sister Carmen’s favorites): “We pray for you, that God may make you worthy of his calling” (2 Thessalonians 1:11). And from Jesus himself: “For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost” (Luke 19:10).

Whatever crazy things we humans may do, forgiveness and salvation can come to us. All things are indeed possible with God.
