Praise to the Lord

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace
to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks
for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Penitential Rite

Option A

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And striking their breast, they say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Option B

Have mercy on us, O Lord.
For we have sinned against you.

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
And grant us your salvation.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

1. Sing with all the saints in glory,
 Sing the resurrection song!
 Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
 To the former days belong.
 All around the clouds are breaking,
 Soon the storms of time shall cease;
 In God's likeness, we awaken,
 Knowing everlasting peace.

2. O what glory, far exceeding
 All that eye has yet perceived!
 Holiest hearts for ages pleading,
 Never that full joy conceived.
 God has promised, Christ prepares it,
 There on high our welcome waits;
 Ev'ry humble spirit shares it,
 Christ has passed the eternal gates.

3. Life eternal! heav'n rejoices:
 Jesus lives who once was dead;
 Shout with joy, O deathless voices!
 Child of God, lift up your head!
 Patriarchs from distant ages,
 Saints all longing for their heav'n,
 Prophets, psalmists, seers, and sages,
 All await the glory giv'n.

4. Life eternal! O what wonders Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
 When, amidst earth's closing thunders,
 Saints shall stand before the throne!
 O to enter that bright portal,
 See that glowing firmament,
 Know, with you, O God immortal,
 Jesus Christ whom you have sent!

Vocations Awareness Week

November 6, 2022

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 6-12, 2022. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

We have one of the most vibrant seminaries in the country. Please keep the men that are discerning the priesthood there in your prayers. You can also donate to the athenaeum as they work to form these men and the lay people who are taking classes at the school of theology via this link: athenaeum.edu/donate/

We are also working very hard to invite an order of religious nuns to our parish family. Please keep this in your prayers as we find a home for them and the women who are seeking a vocation to religious life.

Amen? Amen.

Veteran's Day: Collection for the Military

This weekend we will be collecting for the National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). The AMS collection was first approved by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2012 and is scheduled to be taken every three years on the Sunday before Veterans Day.

Veterans Day Prayer

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

Elderly and Homebound Ministry

The mission is to visit/contact homebound and elderly parishioners who can no longer attend Mass. It is an incredible opportunity to accompany and serve those most in need.

The ministry entails home visits, phone calls, sending cards/bulletins, and more. Ministry can be completed according to your time and comfortability. A volunteer can be trained as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion to bring the Eucharistic Lord to those who can no longer attend Mass (training will be provided).

If you want to help, email or call Terri Knappenberger (tknappenberger@smshp.com or call 321-1207, ext. 8400) to be placed on our list and we will get you all the info and assistance you need!

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

This Friday, we celebrate Veterans Day. We honor these men and women who gave service to our country, whether it be serving in wartime or peace. Whether it be stateside or abroad, these people deserve our respect and appreciation. St Mary School will honor our local veterans in Church at 10:00 am.

Fr. Ken Schopf

From the School Office

Last week, our 7th & 8th-grade students spent the day in retreat with NET Ministries. This retreat is a capstone of their preparation to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this Tuesday evening at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains. Please keep our young men and women in your prayers. Come, Holy Spirit, come!

November and SVDP

The SVDP serves up 3 ways to help our neighbors in need this month!

Food Drive Weekend - November 19 & 20

Non-perishable food and baby Items are collected in the vestibule for Mercy Neighborhood Ministries, Mother of Christ Church, and Pregnancy Center East.

Bundle Sunday - November 26 & 27

A SVDP truck will be on the back parking lot after all Masses the weekend of November 26 & 27 accepting useable clothing, household goods, electronics, and other miscellaneous items. Items you no longer need may help families in our area. Receipts for tax purposes will be provided.

Coat Drive - NOW through November

Share the warmth this winter and donate a coat to a neighbor in need. All sizes are needed from children to adult XXL. Accepting hats and gloves too! Collection barrels are located in the vestibule and school.

CATECHESIS (kat’i-ke’sis) n.

What happens when we die?

In death, body and soul are separated. The body decays, while the soul goes to meet God and waits to be reunited with its risen body on the Last Day. [992-1004, 1016-1018]

How the resurrection will take place is a mystery. An image can help us to accept it: When we look at a tulip bulb we cannot tell into what a marvelously beautiful flower it will develop in the dark earth. Similarly, we know nothing about the future appearance of our new body. Paul is nevertheless certain: “It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory” (1 Corinthians 15:43a). (YOUCAT question 154)

KNOW YOUR SAINTS

St. Sharbel Makhluf (1828 - 1898)

Although this saint never traveled far from the Lebanese village of Beka-Kafra, where he was born, his influence has spread widely.

Joseph Zaroun Makluf was raised by an uncle because his father, a mule driver, died when Joseph was only three. At the age of 23, Joseph joined the Monastery of St. Maron at Annaya, Lebanon, and took the name Sharbel in honor of a second-century martyr. He professed his final vows in 1853 and was ordained six years later.

Following the example of the fifth-century St. Maron, Sharbel lived as a hermit from 1875 until his death. His reputation for holiness prompted people to seek him to receive a blessing and to be remembered in his prayers. He followed a strict fast and was very devoted to the Blessed Sacrament. When his superiors occasionally asked him to administer the sacraments to nearby villages, Sharbel did so gladly.

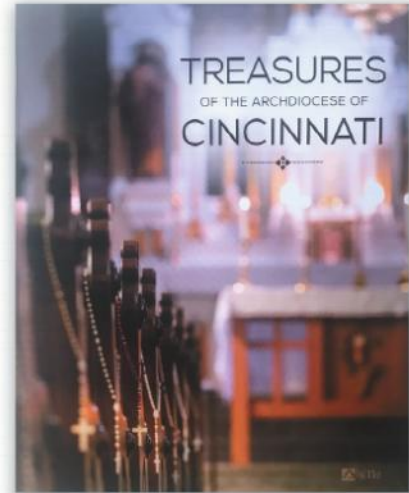

He died in the late afternoon on Christmas Eve. Christians and non-Christians soon made his tomb a place of pilgrimage and of cures. Pope Paul VI beatified him in 1965 and canonized him 12 years later.

ADVENT MISSION 2022: Live a Life of No Regrets

Join us for our Family of Parish’s Advent mission at St. Mary Church on December 4, 5, & 6, from 7-8 PM each evening and features Mr. Robert Rogers. Robert experienced a tragedy of biblical proportions when he lost his wife and all four children in a flash flood in Kansas in 2003. Through his immediate trust in God, Robert has risen above adversity and shared his compelling message across the country and with ABC, CBS, CNN, EWTN, Focus on the Family, and numerous Catholic churches, schools, youth rallies, & men’s conferences.

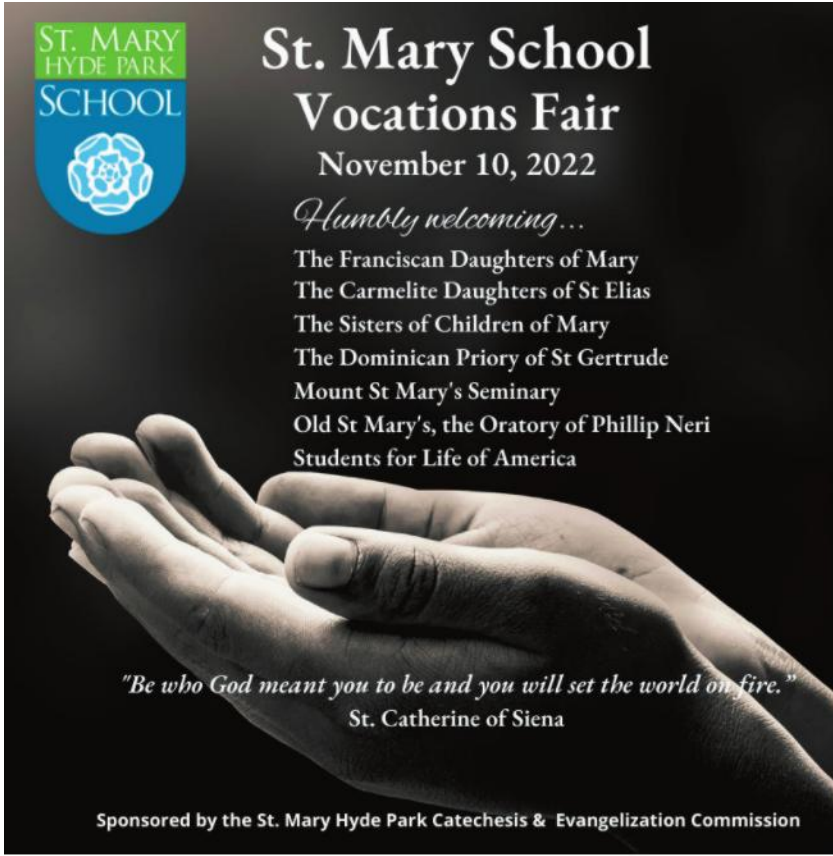

An accomplished worship leader, pianist, songwriter, and author of “Into the Deep,” “7 Steps to No Regrets,” and “Rise Above,” Robert teaches others to Live a Life of No Regrets with his inspiring words and original songs at the piano. In the midst of tragedy, Robert embraced his faith in Jesus. He comes to us to show how we can live in the hope of Christ in the midst of difficult life experiences, grief, loss, and any other cross that we bear in this life.

St. Cecilia Church is featured in this version of Treasures of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, with a with more than a dozen photographs, including inside the front and back covers of this book, that capture the beauty of the church. This attractive, 186-page coffee table book in full color is truly a collector’s item. Experience the celebration of the great beauty and historical background of our church, and over 100 churches and holy places in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati like never before.

These books will be on sale beginning next week for $30 each. It will make a beautiful Christmas gift or family remembrance of St. Cecilia Church. There is a limited quantity, so buy yours now.

Thanksgiving Day Dinner

Once again St. Cecilia will hold its annual Thanksgiving Dinner for anyone needing a meal or wanting company to share the holiday. The dinner will be available from noon until 2 p.m. on Thursday, November 24 in the Commons (school cafeteria).

The dinner is free and open to all ages. Invite your friends and plan to stop by, even if it's only for dessert! Meal deliveries are available by calling Dan at (513) 478-0361. All requests for meal delivery must be made by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, November 21.

There are many opportunities available to lend a hand. We use approximately 65 turkeys each year, so the need for individuals to donate and roast a turkey is great. If you can help in this manner, please call Dee at (513) 871-4191. If you reach voice mail, please leave your name and number and someone will return your call.

For any of the other numerous volunteer opportunities, please call Dan at (513) 478-0361. We will need people to assist with turkey carving the evening prior, delivering meals to people's homes, serving, preparing carry-out meals, engaging in hospitality, and clean-up. Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted.

This is a one of our parish family's great outreach events. We hope you can be a part of it.

Join us as we celebrate the retirement and the 75th birthday of Barb Browarsky on Sunday, November 13 following the 10 AM Mass at St. Cecilia. The reception will be in the school gymnasium.

Farewell Mass & Reception

Monsignor Frank Lane will be leaving the East-side Family of Parishes. Monsignor, who served at St. Cecilia for the past twelve years as well as the parishes of St. Anthony and St. Margaret-St. John for the past four years, has been recalled to his home diocese of Columbus by Bishop Earl Fernandes.

In gratitude for his faithful service to our parishes and to the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, all priests and faithful are invited to attend a special farewell Mass on Sunday, November 20, at 2:00 PM at St. Cecilia with a reception will follow.

40 Plus Fun Bunch Soup Supper

Bring your favorite soup, crackers, bread, cheese, any sides that are good with soup this Sunday, November 6, from 4-6 p.m., to the St. Cecilia Commons. If you don't want to make a pot of soup, bring your favorite dessert! It'll be fun to get together on fall evening sharing good food and fellowship. Please join us!

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

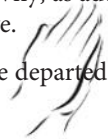

Luke 20:38. "He is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

I used to think this phrase meant that God was for those of us still alive on Earth, not necessarily for those who had died; that he was there for us to rely upon (which he is). But now I understand this differently —even though a person’s physical body has passed, their soul is still alive for eternity, and they surround us and are with us always.

For instance, when we attend Mass, the priest says “with all the angels and saints”; this means they are with us during Mass. Not coincidentally, we just read the Beatitudes on All Saints Day earlier this week. Saints are those who recognize that the kingdom of God is at hand and respond by living its attitudes fully in this life. In other words, we can all be saints! And at all times, including at Mass, all the souls of our faithfully departed are with us. But the real question is: do you see them or feel them? Do you really believe they are there?

In the old movie, The Santa Clause, when Tim Allen’s character goes to the North Pole for the first time and has a hard time believing it exists, Bernard, the head elf, says kids don’t need to see this to know it exists; they just believe it, so they can see it. Why, as adults, do we need to see something to believe it exists? The Church’s motto is Lex orandi, lex credenda: we pray what we believe.

Wouldn’t our prayers be more intentional and meaningful if we knew we were surrounded and supported by all those departed souls cheering for us in heaven?
