Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Is 8:23—9:3

First the Lord degraded the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the end he has glorified the seaward road, the land west of the Jordan, the District of the Gentiles.

Anguish has taken wing, dispelled is darkness: for there is no gloom where but now there was distress. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone.

You have brought them abundant joy and great rejoicing, as they rejoice before you as at the harvest, as people make merry when dividing spoils. For the yoke that burdened them, the pole on their shoulder, and the rod of their taskmaster, you have smashed, as on the day of Midian.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Psalm 27

1. The Lord is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold of my life;
whom should I dread?

2. There is one thing I ask of the LORD,
only this do I seek:
To live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD, to inquire at his temple.

3. I believe I shall see the LORD's goodness in the land of the living.
Wait for the LORD; be strong;
be stouthearted, and wait for the LORD!

Second Reading

1 Cor 1:10-13, 17

I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. For it has been reported to me about you, my brothers and sisters, by Chloe's people, that there are rivalries among you. I mean that each of you is saying, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with the wisdom of human eloquence, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its meaning.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mt 4:12-23

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death light has arisen. From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. He walked along from there and saw two other brothers, James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him. He went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Cocktails with the Catechism

January 22, 2023

On Tuesday, January 24, at 7:00 PM, at the Big Ash Brewery, Cocktails with the Catechism will kick off the first talk of the year. The first speaker is our own Fr. Anthony Marcelli. If you're following along with the Catechism in a Year podcast with Fr. Mike Schmitz, joining this event each month will add to your experience. The topics will cover hard issues, and we will have a chance to join other parishioners in discussing the Catechism as well as enjoy some delicious cocktails and food! Join us and deepen your relationship with Our Lord through the Catholic Catechism, the best instruction to our faith. Let us take this opportunity to learn and get closer to God.

Parish Discipleship Survey - I Need Your Help!

I am very excited to announce that we will be participating in a "family-wide" survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute, a non-profit Catholic apostolate that does leadership training and development.

But I need your help.

We want as many parishioners as possible to complete a 10-minute survey. The survey will only be available from January 20 (starting at 2 PM) until February 26 and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on what efforts the parishes are doing to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parishes will only receive information about the parish communities in our family of parishes and our family as a whole.

The link to the online survey was emailed to all parishioners on Friday, January 20. If you did not receive this email, please contact your parish office to be added to the email list. You can access the survey by typing the following website URL into your internet browser. Surveys are separate by location so as to allow us to see the data for each location separately. Only take the survey once and for the location that you attend Mass at the most:

- St. Cecilia: portal.catholicleaders.org/d/yttc03
- St. Mary: portal.catholicleaders.org/d/y9tp43
- Oratory of St. John Vianney: portal.catholicleaders.org/d/ytt9cy

Please take 10 minutes to complete the survey. The results will be invaluable to me, the staff, and our many volunteers as we seek ways to best support everyone in their discipleship journey.

I look forward to sharing the findings with you when the project is complete! Thank you for helping with this important project!

SCHOLARSHIP GRANTING ORGANIZATION

SUPPORT OUR SCHOOLS! A donation to the Archdiocese of Cincinnati Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO), directing the funding to St. Cecilia and St. Mary schools, is a great opportunity to direct state funding that would otherwise be paid in taxes, to St. Cecilia or St. Mary. There is no cost to your family individually, as the donation generates a dollar-for-dollar tax credit of $750 per donor (up to $1500 for a couple) to be used against Ohio tax liability. Contact your tax advisor, but in general any family with an expected tax for 2022 of $1500 or greater can fully participate. This fund will help create additional scholarship funding for St. Cecilia and St. Mary that would otherwise be funded through the general fund. Participate and learn more at catholicbestchoice.org/sgo/

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

The Supreme Court overturned Roe v Wade this summer, and many thought abortion would be no more. They were sadly mistaken. The decision put it with each state where it should be. As you can see, the battle is far from over. Pray that people have a change of heart and understand that all lives are precious from conception to natural death.

CATECHESIS (kat’i-ke’sis) n.

Kyrie Eleison (Greek)

This prayer is still frequently prayed in Greek. It originated in Greek liturgies and became part of the Latin Rite in the fifth century. It is essentially a response to a litany. The Trinitarian interpretation (Lord...Christ... Lord) was a later development. Until 1969, each line was prayed or sung three times; after 1969 each line was sung or prayed (by a leader or choir) and then repeated (by the assembly). While the prayer can be included in the penitential rite, since it implores the Lord’s mercy, it is above all a prayer of praise to the Risen Christ in litany form.

- Kyrie eleison. Lord, have mercy.*
Christe eleison. Christ, have mercy.
Kyrie eleison. Lord, have mercy.

KNOW YOUR SAINTS

St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430)

A Christian at 33, a priest at 36, a bishop at 41: Many people are familiar with the biographical sketch of Augustine of Hippo, sinner turned saint. But really to get to know the man is a rewarding experience.

There quickly surfaces the intensity with which he lived his life, whether his path led away from or toward God. The tears of his mother (August 27), the instructions of Ambrose (December 7) and, most of all, God himself speaking to him in the Scriptures redirected Augustine’s love of life to a life of love.

Having been so deeply immersed in creature-pride of life in his early days and having drunk deeply of its bitter dregs, it is not surprising that Augustine should have turned, with a holy fierceness, against the many demon-thrusts rampant in his day. His times were truly decadent—politically, socially, morally. He was both feared and loved, like the Master. The perennial criticism leveled against him: a fundamental rigorism.

In his day, he providentially fulfilled the office of prophet. Like Jeremiah and other greats, he was hard-pressed but could not keep quiet. “I say to myself, I will not mention him,/I will speak in his name no more./But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart,/imprisoned in my bones;/I grow weary holding it in,/I cannot endure it” (Jeremiah 20:9).

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Corinthians 1:13. "Is Christ divided?"

In today's first reading, the prophet Isaiah speaks to those in a divided kingdom, describing the coming arrival of the Messiah: a redeemer who would save them from the sin that led to division and exile. As the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy, Jesus calls his apostles and all disciples to follow him, repent, and prepare for the kingdom of heaven. With our eyes firmly fixed on Christ, we will be ushered into his kingdom, "united in the same mind and in the same purpose" (1 Corinthians 1:10).

While today's readings point to unity as the ultimate goal, it is necessary to consider that which unifies us. "Unity" is commonly purported to be the ultimate goal by society's leaders and cultural influencers. However, we must not seek unity with our brothers and sisters at the expense of faithful adherence to God's Word and Church teaching. We are united in Christ, not in secular values. We are united under God's law, not the laws of the world. If we seek to conform the Church to our worldly ideals, we do not seek true unity. Instead, we only divide ourselves further from God. ~Jonathan Pechette
