THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The Heart of Mary, Leopold Kupelwieser (1796–1862)

Worship Aid for the Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.
Christe Eleison/Christ, have mercy.

Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.
Kyrie Eleison/Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

1 Kgs 3:5, 7-12

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this—not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right—I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130

1. I have said, "O LORD, my portion is to obey your words."
The law from your mouth means more to me than large quantities of silver and gold.

2. Let your merciful love console me by your promise to your servant.
Show me compassion, that I may live, for your law is my delight.

3. That is why I love your commands more than finest gold, why I rule my life by your precepts, and hate false ways.

4. Your decrees are wonderful indeed; therefore my soul obeys them.
The unfolding of your word gives light, and understanding to the simple.

Second Reading

Rom 8:28-30

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mt 13:44-52

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

1. There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

2. For the love of God is broader Than the measures of the mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more faithful,
We should rest upon God's word;
And our lives would be thanksgiving
For the goodness of our Lord.

3. Troubled souls, why will you scatter
Like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why will you wander
From a love so true and deep?
There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior,
There is healing in his blood.

Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

July 30, 2023

In the month of August we celebrate the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We ask her to guide us and help us by raising our prayers to Her Son. We dedicate ourselves and follow in her example of doing God's will. We can ask for her intercession. May we take time this month to consecrate ourselves to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Amen? Amen!

Fr. Jesse

Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

O most pure heart of Mary, full of goodness, show your love towards us. Let the flame of your heart, O Mary, descend on all people. We love you immensely. Impress on our hearts true love so that we may long for you. O Mary, gentle and humble of heart, remember us when we sin. You know that all people sin. Grant that through your most pure and motherly heart, we may be healed from every spiritual sickness. Grant that we may always experience the goodness of your motherly heart, and that through the flame of your heart we may be converted. Amen.

News from ...

The Oratory of Saint John Vianney

The Oratory is part of St. Cecilia parish, and we are a growing community, dedicated to expanding the Catholic presence in Madisonville, and devoted to prayer for the priests of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, through the intercession of St. John Vianney.

An oratory is a place for divine worship designated by the bishop for the benefit of a community, to which other members of the faithful can also come. An oratory is similar to a chapel, but is public, whereas a chapel is private.

Mass is offered Monday-Friday at 11:45 am, and the rosary begins at 11:15 am for the special intention of the priests of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. Fr. Anthony encouraged us all to try to attend one more time per week than we are now — what a great chance in the middle of the day to refocus on the Lord.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

There was an Irish lady whose son came to America in 1900. She lived in a run-down shanty. Whenever her best friend visited, she would talk about her son nonstop. She would say how well he is doing.

Her friend said if he is doing so well, why doesn't he help you? She said, "He sends me a letter every week. Also, he sends me a pretty piece of paper with pictures." Her friend was aghast. Those pretty papers were banknotes worth thousands. She had a treasure and did not know it. Do we realize the wealth we possess with The Lord's love?

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

Divine Mercy in My Soul by St. Maria Faustina Kowalska

It was through weekly attendance of Adoration in college that I truly learnt how to pray; Divine Mercy in My Soul played a key role in bringing about this transformation. In hearing about this book from a Dominican priest and friend who loved St. Faustina, I was intrigued at the fact that her diary contained real conversations with Christ, who was made present to her through a series of apparitions. I craved to hear actual words spoken by our Lord that had been so seemingly absent in my own prayer. Immediately upon opening my copy I had received as a gift, my relationship with the Lord took on a whole new level of intimacy. Many of the fears and struggles of St. Faustina I discovered were also my own, and I could hear Jesus speaking His words to me in 2018 Providence, RI, as well as in early 20th century Poland. Above all, what I carry with me from this book (which I continue to pick up regularly) is the limitless mercy our Lord desires to pour out for all souls: those struggling with small sins, those who have committed grave offenses, and, as we can too often forget, our very selves. Whenever a friend comes to me struggling with how to pray, all I have to do is hand them a copy and Christ touches their heart in some new and unexpected way just like he touched mine. – Haley Metzger

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 13:51. "Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes."

Today's readings provide a lot to ruminate over. In the first reading a young Solomon asks God for "an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong." Makes one wonder how many politicians today would make such a mature request.

In the gospel, Jesus beats his disciples over the head with three parables describing the value of the kingdom of heaven, comparing it to earthly treasure.

Somehow, this reminded me of a eulogy given by the pastor at my Irish grandfather's funeral Mass many years ago. The priest related a conversation he had after Mass one Sunday, when he told my grandfather that one of his elderly neighbors was converting to Catholicism, to which "Pop-pop" had replied, "Well...it's about time." The pastor thought the response amusingly appropriate, since my 90-year old grandfather likely thought it was "about time" for he himself to complete his earthly time, and enjoy the kingdom of heaven.

For Christ's disciples, understanding the value of the kingdom of heaven wasn't as simple as it was for Pop-Pop, and for us today— with 2,000 years of Christianity behind us.

After Jesus tells his three parables, he asks the disciples if they understand "all these things." When they respond "Yes," I envision Jesus replying, "Well...it's about time!"

Of course that's not fair to the disciples, since Christ's message was so novel to them: that earthly treasure is fine, but it's about time to fixate on heavenly treasure.
